Background Singapore was ranked No.1 among the world largest port, handling 15.1 million TEUs (20 feet container equivalent) and 642 thousand vessels (as of 1998). There are a lot of cargoes handled under refrigerated and frozen condition, which makes this island a very suitable place to establish a base for food manufacturing. Singapore is a perfect free port as well, and thanks to its location, swift and frequent transportation can be done from other Asian countries, Oceania, European countries etc. Thus, we are in the best position to purchase high quality food materials to meet the customers' specific requirements, such as cocoa, sugar, vegetable oils and dairy products.

Woodlands Sunny Foods Pte Ltd, cooperate with its group company - Fuji Oil (Singapore) Pte. Ltd, Fuji Oil (Thailand), Palmaju Edible Oil Sdn. Bhd (Malaysia), P.T. Freyabadi Indotama (Indonesia), New Leyte Edible Oil Manufacturing Corporation (Philippines), P.T. Musim Mas-Fuji (Indonesia) in a wide range of business activities such as supply, purchases, research & development and marketing.

The group adopt its parent company, Fuji Oil (Japan) Co., Ltd, unique way, focus on producing and developing new & healthy products to enrich global new life style.

Into the new era, we integrate Fuji Sunny Foods Corp. Pte Ltd into a more dynamic Fuji Oil Asia Pte Ltd, to introduce the group's products into local and global market place. At FOA, we have a application team to create and provide solutions. We are committed to provide ultimate Value and Convenience to our customers.
